

🍂 (Re)Storying St. George Campus - CoP Retreat Day 🍂

Friday, September 22nd 2023

Contact info for Retreat

- Interpretive walk from First Story, led by Jon Johnson and Brooke Holdsworth
- Community of Practice on Sustainability Teaching website
- Catering: Dashmaawaan Bemaadzinjin (They Feed the People) info@dashbema.com

Resources mentioned on Tour

- Ziibiing - Indigenous Landscape at Taddle Creek – article 1 and article 2
- OCAP Principles for research with Indigenous communities
- Land as teacher (UNESCO article)
- Taddle Creek Park and Lost Rivers website on Taddle Creek
- Dr. Rick Hill - Dish with one Spoon Wampum Belt - webinar

Resources available to UofT Students, Faculty, and Staff

First Nations House Indigenous Student Services Check out Resource Centre	“We provide culturally relevant services to Indigenous students to support academic success, personal growth and leadership development. We offer learning opportunities for all students to engage with Indigenous communities at U of T and beyond.”
The Office of Indigenous Initiatives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reports on TRC and U of T’s Calls to Action • Elder Protocol • Land Acknowledgement Statement Protocol 	“The Office of Indigenous Initiatives was established in response to the report by U of T’s Truth and Reconciliation Commission Steering Committee. The Office’s mandate is to support and guide the U of T community as it continues to work towards reconciliation. Efforts are directed towards listening, coordinating, advising, and collaborating with academic and non-academic communities addressing the Calls of Action.”
Indigenous Education learning Modules at OISE	“This set of learning modules has been created to support and inspire educators and future teachers to gain a deeper understanding of Indigenous perspectives and an appreciation of how Indigenous knowledge and worldviews can assist all learners in their educational journey. The goal of the modules is to provide an introductory grounding to key issues affecting Indigenous people in Canada as a foundation for further and deeper learning.”
Indigenous Education Network (IEN) at OISE	“The Indigenous Education Network (IEN) is a group of students, faculty and community members who share a common commitment to and passion for convening anti-colonial education, elevating radical ways of knowing, organizing action and change, and deepening relations between Indigenous, Black, and Black-Indigenous peoples. The Indigenous Education Network supports students through co-curricular programming, resources and mentoring.”
Tkaranto Circle Lab - Collaborative Indigenous Research Digital Garden at OISE- Access here	“The Digital Garden is designed to bring together two fields of research: participatory research and Indigenous research. Given that these fields have their own distinct methodologies, methods, approaches to study and theories of change, we created the Digital Garden as a virtual visiting place to bring these fields in conversation with each other.”

Resources available to wider community

- The Firelight Group: Community Driven Research
- Native Canadian Centre of Toronto \(NCCT\)
- Toronto Council Fire - Native Cultural Centre